EXPLORATIONS CAFÉ, 8
Pick up today's daily quiz and test your knowledge about Quebec City.

Hockey Shoot Out · 4:30pm
SPORTS COURT, 12
Ice Hockey is the most popular sport in Canada. Its origin unknown, it likely evolved from the game of field hockey played in Northern Europe for centuries. Join Show Host Kevin for a hockey shoot out competition.

Foodie Fight Trivia · 5:00pm
HUDSON ROOM, 7
Test your Canada & New England themed culinary knowledge with Culinary Arts Center Host Jordan.

A.T. Storrs Jewelry Collection
SIGNATURE SHOPS, 8
Intarsia is a form of wood inlaying where every piece is cut, shaped and fitted by hand. Discover this collection of beautiful sculptures, key chains and boxes crafted from a variety of woods found in New England and Canadian regions, using all natural colors. Every attempt is made by the artisans to recycle wood pieces left from old furniture and decorative accessories.

Drink of the Day: The Quebec
AVAILABLE IN ALL BARS
Fun Fact: Made with traditional Canadian whisky. The first Canadian distillery was open in Quebec City in 1769. By the 1840s there were over 200 distilleries in Canada. Today there are more than 500 Canadian distilled spirit brands, however, Canadian whisky is still the #1 selling product.

Did you know?
Holland America Line has formed a partnership with Marine Conservation Institute, an internationally recognized organization dedicated to protecting our oceans (www.marine-conservation.org), to support ocean education and research. We recognize that protecting our oceans is not only good for the planet but is essential for our business.

Invented in Calgary, Alberta in 1969, The Bloody Caesar is a popular mixed drink in Canada where over 350 million Caesars are consumed annually. Interestingly, the drink remains virtually unknown outside the country.

Did you know?
Holland America Line spends millions of dollars every year to reduce fuel consumption by upgrading our systems. For example, most of our ships used to run two engines while docked in port to generate the needed electricity. Efficiencies we have achieved now enable us to meet our in port requirements with only one engine.

Start your day off with a smile. Your photographers will be at the gangway for the first 3 hours to capture your memories, and from 8:30am - 9:30am pose for a photo with the Halifax Citadel Bagpiper and Highlander!

Thermal Suite and Hydropool
GREENHOUSE SPA, 11
Sweat lodges, or ceremonial saunas, have been part of Native American culture for generations, used as a way to cleanse and purify the body, as well as relieve tension. Canadian Inuit and Eastern Coastal tribes built lodges heated directly by fire, while other native tribes used hot stones and steam. Experience our exclusive relaxation retreat on board with dry heat grottos, steam and aromatherapy chambers and a body temperature mineral pool.

Drink of the Day: Rock Lobster
AVAILABLE IN ALL BARS
Atlantic Canada is famous for its fresh lobster. This delicious concoction is an homage to the iconic crustacean and contains a blend of coconut rum, banana liqueur, dark rum, fresh banana, pineapple juice, orange juice and a dash of grenadine.

Did you know?
Holland America Line was a pioneer in onboard wastewater purification systems. On this ship, the waste water discharged into the sea is treated to a higher quality than the level achieved by most shoreside treatment systems.
